

Job Description – Ministry Assistant

To start summer 2021

Purpose of role

- to encourage, train and raise up gospel workers for tomorrow's harvest field (Matthew 9:37-38). This role will equip you for a lifetime following Christ in church life. It may also help you to explore paid youth, children's or music ministry, or ordination.
- to fulfil our mission to make disciples at Holy Trinity through encouraging and benefitting from the ministries and gifts of the Ministry Assistant in the areas of their work among us

The Three Elements of the Role:

Ministry in Practice

We see the key role of those who lead, teach and pastor in churches as being to pray, and to teach the gospel and train others in discipleship and evangelism (Acts 6:4; 2 Timothy 4:1-5). The role gives you the opportunity to observe and practise Bible ministry in one or more ministry area (eg. students, youth, children, music, or evangelism). This role is likely to involve assisting with the leadership of our Student Group, helping to disciple students 1:1, helping in adult evangelism in our local community, and also teaching the Bible in one or more of our children's or youth groups. The Ministry Assistant attends our weekly staff Bible study/prayer and planning meetings.

You will be given increasing levels of responsibility over time according to experience, including talks or sermons to deliver and Bible studies to lead. You will be involved in 1-1 discipling, helping lead Bible study groups, working with teams of volunteers, and attending weekly staff meetings. You will work closely under the guidance and support of one of our clergy.

To broaden your experience we may link you for shorter periods to a further ministry area.

To support and develop your walk with God, mentoring will be offered with a mature Christian. Corporate worship and prayer, daily prayer and Bible study, small group attendance, good relationships with others, and supporting the church's vision, will be expected.

Ministry in Training

As part of the scheme you will have fees covered to attend the weekly Ministry Training course in Cambridge (TEAM) including travel costs. In a second year with us the Ministry Assistant may then undertake the Crosslands Training in Theology for Mission.

The Rector and/or Curate will meet with you weekly, as will other staff on occasion, to help develop ministry skills and theological understanding with a focus on handling and teaching the Bible. Additionally, you may attend one conference a year, such as the Maximise Conference, Growing Young Disciples, Keswick or Word Alive, plus one mission week such as the UEA Christian Union Events Week. You will also be encouraged to join the team leading on a Pathfinder or CYFA summer Venture in July/August. The church will fund these opportunities by agreement.

Ministry as Service

We expect the Ministry Assistant to serve in some practical ways on a weekly and occasional basis, in addition to the more overtly gospel-teaching opportunities. This is a vital expression of a person's servant heart to put Christ and others first and support our whole-church vision. It is important however that this does not dominate the week or replace the work of paid staff or church volunteers. The service may include office administration or assistance, design or publicity, web and media, welcoming and assisting at church activities such as toddler groups, prayer evenings, meetings for retired people, and setting up and clearing away for larger services, midweek meetings or Sunday activities.

Person Specification

There is a genuine occupational requirement that you are a committed evangelical Christian. We seek a person of either gender with a good character, servant heart, a willingness to respond to God's leading on their life, a good grasp of Christian truth and the Bible, and some experience of, and the gifting and desire to develop in, the theory and practice of Bible teaching ministry. You should be open to considering a call to a lifetime of paid gospel ministry. Given the responsibility in student (and possibly youth) ministry in this post, experience of leadership and gospel ministry amongst students, or young people, is desirable. The post is subject to a satisfactory enhanced DBS check.

About Us

We are a lively Bible-teaching Anglican evangelical church near the centre of the beautiful city of Norwich. We have around 275 adult members and 50 children and young people. Our vision is to be a church of disciples of Jesus Christ who make disciples, bring the good news to others, and glorify Christ.

Every Sunday we meet for two (before the pandemic, three) services reaching different parts of our community and city, with many local people as members and some travelling from across the city and more widely to be part of our family. Currently our services are online and, when possible, in person.

Midweek we encourage whole-life discipleship and disciple making by every member, including in our new members' course, small Bible study groups, one-to-ones and evangelistic courses. Young people meet on a Sunday evening, with children's groups up to aged 11 on Saturday, or Sunday morning before the 10am service. Various groups meet midweek to reach out with the gospel to groups of people in the local and wider community.

The vibrant area around us (known as "the Golden Triangle") is a diverse community with many students, young adults and families. We are a 'normal' disciple making parish church with a wide influence across our city, offering fantastic experience of Bible ministry, and lots of time alongside clergy and other staff. The north-east corner of our parish is an area with high levels of economic and social deprivation and we lease there a shopfront where we aim to develop ministry among adults, families and children. There are two universities in Norwich, the University of East Anglia, and the Norwich University of the Arts, with tens of thousands of students, with many of them living in and around our parish. Our student group meets after our evening service, with a student team to help disciple students in their time with us.

We hold orthodox evangelical convictions about the uniqueness of Christ, His atoning death for our sins, the inspiration and authority of Scripture, and the need for evangelism and salvation through grace and personal faith leading to sanctification. We are a member of the Evangelical Alliance and the Church of England Evangelical Council, and uphold the orthodox Biblical teaching on marriage and sexuality.

Financial Package and Hours of Work

Salary £18,900 per annum for a five day week, plus one day of theological training.

In addition to work and study/training, we expect the Ministry Assistants to take a weekly day off and full holiday entitlement. We expect all staff as members of the Church to give some reasonable time voluntarily.

Salary will be reviewed in January each year. Fees for training will be paid as set out in the 'Ministry in Training' section. The cost of agreed conferences and mission activities, and necessary expenses, will also be paid. A room may be available at a competitive rent in our refurbished church-owned house close to the church building.
